

The AAPA Latino is the most important annual meeting of the Latin American port leadership, where the most representative players of the field present and discuss both current and future projects in the industry.

The 2022 edition is convened by the Latin American Delegation of the American Association of Port Authorities (AAPA) in strategic alliance with Santos Port Authority.

Therefore – with an area of 7.8 million square meters, 53 terminals involved in its operations and 60 berths – Brazil’s largest logistics hub managed by the Santos Port Authority (SPA) will be the main stage of the XXX Latin American Congress of Ports of the American Association of Port Authorities (AAPA).

Representatives of port authorities, directors, managers, executives, suppliers, and consultants of ports, terminals, logistics companies, shipping companies, and other players of the industry will gather in the port city for the meeting that take place from 28 to 30 November.

Featuring an exclusive commercial exhibition in which the most representative suppliers participate, a technical visit to the host port and an social and networking program, the congress is an important event for updating on port business in Latin America.

In fact, every year, the Congress gathering more than 600 port leaders and experts of the industry, with three days of technical sessions to present and discuss major international port projects.

More information:

<https://aapalatinoamerica.com/en/>
